【Graduate School of Global Studies (Fall 2020 Application)】

Special treatment for those applicants who are unable to obtain original submission documents (Letter of Graduation Confirmation, Graduation Certificate or Official Transcripts) due to office closure/Covid19

Graduate School of Global Studies accepts that the applicants can submit the following documents instead;

- (1) information such as university URL or email correspondences which are indicating that the original document cannot be obtained; and
- (2) a hard copy of the document (Letter of Graduation Confirmation, Graduation Certificate or Official Transcripts).

Application package will be accepted in condition that the above original documents are submitted by the date specified below, after receiving the acceptance notice;

December 17, 2020 (Thu.)

Failure to submit the original documents by the deadline is considered to be not meeting the application requirement and hence enrollment will not be accepted.

Please refer to the guidance for the Initial Registration Procedures enclosed in the Notification of Acceptance for details.
