受 験 番 号	※

Plan of study at Graduate School of Culture and Information Science

_____Year_____Month_____Day

Name of Applicant _____

Name of Academic Supervisor/Course

Please describe your research plan from the following page.
- Your statements must be in Japanese or English.
- Use 10 point or higher font, including footnotes, etc. There are no other rules on formatting, including type of font, line spacing, etc.
- Provide a concise statement, citing relevant literature and using conceptual diagrams, etc. as necessary.
- You must not change the format or add extra pages.

Research Plan Provide a concise statement using conceptual diagrams, etc. as necessary. You must not change the format or add extra pages.

(1) Outline/Summery and Positioning of the Research *The maximum length of this section is one (1) page.

・Firstly, state the title of the research and provide its outline/summery in about 500 double-byte (1,000 single-byte) characters on the upper part of the page.

・Then, describe the positioning of the research that you will pursue as a doctoral student, including the current trends, issues, and other background information on the relevant research area, and how you came to conceive your research plan.

Research Title :

Research Plan (Continued) Provide a concise statement using conceptual diagrams, etc. as necessary. You must not change the format or add extra pages.

(2) Research Objectives, Description, etc. *The maximum length of this section is two (2) pages in total.

(i) State the objectives, methods, and details of the research in the research plan you will pursue as a doctoral student.

(ii) Give a specific description of your research plan, what you aim to establish, and to what extent by showing your scheme for each year.

(iii) The features and uniqueness of your research (comparison to prior studies, etc., expected impacts upon completion of the research, future prospects, etc.).

（【2】 Research Plan (2)Research Objectives, Description, etc.—Continued)